Prepare for the March, 2022 test with our five-week review course.

Students will:

- Learn the content of the test (what they will be expected to know).
- Learn test taking strategies (for the overall test and for each specific section).
 - Take timed, practice, tests and review answers after.
- Take a full-length practice test during the final week of the course.

Classes, offered several days per week, begin the week of February 1, 2022.
